DIET.—The dietetic part of medicine inconsiderate branch, and deserve no inconsiderate branch, and deserves a much greater share of regard than it commonly meets with. A great variety of diseases might be removed by the observance of a proper diet and regimen without the assistance of medicine, were it not for the lungatience of the sufferers. On all occasions, it may come in as a "proper assistant to the cure," and we would particularly caution the stillier, that it is taking Roback's Rigod Pilia. in as a "proper assistant to the cure," and we would particularly caution the attlicted that in taking Roback's Blood Pilia
